

The Journal OF THE House of Representatives

Number 25

Friday, February 24, 2012

The House was called to order by the Speaker at 1:00 p.m.

Prayer

The following prayer was offered by the Reverend Jeri Wilson of Freedom Ranch of Okeechobee, upon invitation of Rep. Grimsley:

Father, this come before You this afternoon in worship and praise of Your goodness and Your grace. In Your grace, doing for all of us what we cannot do for ourselves and showing each of us our part. And our part, each one of us is an irreplaceable part in a large—much larger story.

Father, as we worship You today, we realize that every generation has always been born into this world at war. There are wars, there are battles—some personal, some nationally but, every one of them, You are in this with us—not to destroy, but to draw clear lines to be able to hand back down to our children those things that have been given to us. Enlarge those things in our hearts and our eyes and our deepest understanding that are pure gold to You, the things that are truly valuable to You, and let us live that out and win, Lord, in a manner that honors You and honors our families.

Today, we just worship You together. Bless these women and bless these men in this room today. Again, with that knowing deep inside that everything they do is being honored by You. And You will make it bigger than our dreams can imagine.

I have experienced Your grace and love and I know each one of us do here today. But we worship you as the God of our nation, the God of our fathers—the fathers of this union—and the God of our children and we leave them to You, Jesus, in Your Holy Name. Amen.
